Welcome to Secondary at Park House English School

At Park House English School, our Secondary School is where students grow into confident, capable young people, ready to face the challenges of the future. From Year 7 to Year 11, students are encouraged to explore their interests, deepen their understanding, and build the academic and personal skills that will support them through Sixth Form and beyond.

We follow the British curriculum, offering a broad and balanced education that nurtures curiosity, resilience, and ambition. Our students study a wide range of subjects, developing strong foundations in English, Mathematics, Sciences, Humanities, Languages, and the Arts. As they progress, they are guided to make informed choices about their IGCSE subjects, laying the groundwork for success in A-Levels and future pathways.

But at Park House, education is about more than exam results. We believe in developing the whole child, intellectually, socially, and emotionally. Through a rich programme of co-curricular activities, student leadership opportunities, and personal development initiatives, we help students build confidence, independence, and a strong sense of character.

Our experienced teachers, many of whom are UK-trained, create a supportive and engaging learning environment where every student is known, valued, and challenged to achieve their best. With personalised pastoral care and high expectations, we help students navigate the important teenage years with integrity and ambition.

By the time they complete Secondary School, Park House students are not only well-prepared for the academic demands, they are ready to take ownership of their futures, with the skills, mindset, and motivation to succeed in whatever path they choose.

A Strong Foundation with the British Curriculum

At Park House English School, our Secondary School programme (Years 7–11) follows the British Curriculum, providing a rich and well-rounded academic experience. The curriculum is designed to build a strong foundation of knowledge and skills, preparing students for IGCSE success, further study, and life beyond school.

Students explore a broad range of subjects, developing curiosity, creativity, and critical thinking before making IGCSE choices in Key Stage 4. Lessons are taught by subject specialists who challenge and support students, helping them reach their full academic potential while fostering a genuine love of learning.

We focus on developing independent learners. Through project work, investigations, collaborative activities, and structured homework, students build the study habits and problem-solving skills needed for future academic success. Responsibility, initiative, and confidence are encouraged at every stage, helping students take ownership of their learning.

Academic achievement goes hand in hand with wellbeing. Our strong pastoral care system, including experienced form tutors and heads of year, ensures every student feels supported, valued, and known as an individual. PSHE lessons, leadership opportunities, mentoring, and enrichment activities further develop resilience, emotional intelligence, and social skills.

Secondary School at Park House is more than academic preparation — it is the foundation for each student’s individual journey. Expert guidance helps students make informed IGCSE choices and plan their next steps, ensuring they are ready for the challenges and opportunities ahead.

Your Future Starts Here

At Park House English School, Secondary School is the start of an exciting journey. It's a time of growth, exploration, and decision-making, where choices—especially at GCSE—lay the foundation for future ambitions.

Whether aiming for a top university, a professional career, or a creative pathway, our dedicated teachers and advisers guide every student to make informed decisions and achieve their potential.

Expert Guidance in Subject Choices – Each student receives tailored support to ensure their GCSE subjects match their strengths, interests, and long-term goals.

Personalised Support – Small class sizes, specialist teaching, and one-to-one mentoring ensure every learner is challenged, supported, and inspired to succeed.

Future-Focused Preparation – Beyond the classroom, students are guided on how their GCSE choices connect to A-Level pathways, higher education, and career opportunities.

Park House also develops independence, resilience, and confidence. Leadership opportunities, extracurricular activities, and global enrichment through our ISP partnership equip students with the skills to thrive in school and life.

By the end of their GCSEs, students are ready not just for Sixth Form but for the next steps toward their ambitions. At Park House, every choice made in Secondary School is a step toward a successful future.

Beyond The Classroom

At Park House English School, learning goes far beyond the classroom. Students benefit from a wide range of local and international opportunities that develop skills, confidence, and experiences for life beyond school.

Global Engagement

Students take part in Model United Nations (MUN) conferences and international events, gaining exposure to global perspectives, teamwork, and leadership. These experiences help students develop critical thinking, public speaking, and collaborative skills while connecting with peers worldwide.

Sports and Leadership

Through participation in QUESS, QPPSSA, and BSME competitions, students develop teamwork, discipline, and healthy competition. Leadership roles in sports teams, clubs, and student councils further build responsibility and confidence.

Music, Arts, and Creativity

Students explore their talents through music, performance, and creative projects. Highlights include the COBIS Music Festival, Choir of the Year, and local events such as the MOVE Dance Festival. Workshops, exhibitions, and ensemble opportunities allow students to express themselves, collaborate with others, and celebrate achievement in the arts.

Academic and Professional Enrichment

Opportunities such as medical conferences, debate competitions, and public speaking events give students a chance to explore future careers, engage with professionals, and practice real-world problem solving.

At Park House, education is more than grades – it's about building character, confidence, and a global outlook. Every activity, trip, and opportunity helps students grow as independent, well-rounded individuals ready to thrive in school, university, and beyond.

Why choose Park House English School?

Park House English School is British owned and run, delivering the highly respected British curriculum. We combine the strong traditions and values of British education with a modern, global outlook that prepares students for the future.

Academic Success

Our students achieve consistently strong results in IGCSE and A Level examinations, reflecting high academic standards and a culture of ambition, effort, and achievement.

Experienced, Supportive Staff

Our experienced teachers bring the best of UK educational practice into the classroom. They build positive relationships with students and create a supportive environment where every learner is known, encouraged, and challenged to do their best.

Personalised Learning

We recognise that every student is different. Teaching is tailored to individual strengths, interests, and goals, helping students stay motivated, make progress, and develop confidence in their abilities.

Active, Practical Learning

Learning goes beyond textbooks. Students take part in practical activities, experiments, creative projects, and problem-solving tasks that deepen understanding and develop real-world skills.

A Research-Informed Approach

Our teaching combines clear structure with opportunities for independent thinking and exploration. Students are encouraged to ask questions, think critically, and take increasing responsibility for their learning.

Engaging Topics and Achievement

Lessons are designed to capture students' interest and connect learning to real life. Achievements are regularly recognised and celebrated, helping to build confidence and a positive attitude towards learning.

Educational Visits and Enrichment

Trips, events, and enrichment activities extend learning beyond the classroom. These experiences strengthen understanding, build independence, and help students develop a broader view of the world.

Engaging Learning

Outstanding examination success, year after year.

At Park House English School, academic success is not a one-off achievement – it is a proud tradition at the heart of our Secondary School. Year after year, students achieve results at IGCSE that are consistently above international averages, opening doors to exciting future opportunities.

During the secondary years, students build a strong academic foundation through a broad and balanced range of subjects. Along the way, they develop essential skills such as critical thinking, independence, organisation, and resilience. With expert guidance from dedicated teachers, students choose subjects that reflect their interests, strengths, and future ambitions.

High expectations are matched with personalised support. Small class sizes, experienced staff, and a focused learning environment help students grow in confidence and take responsibility for their own progress. Success here is built on effort, determination, and a positive attitude towards learning.

Our strong results are reflected in the pathways students go on to pursue. Park House students move forward with the knowledge, skills, and self-belief needed to succeed in further education and a wide range of future careers, from medicine and engineering to business and the creative industries.

At Park House, every student's achievement matters. Their hard work, curiosity, and perseverance shape a school community where success is earned, celebrated, and built to last.
