

Sixth Form at Park House English School

Founded in 1994, Park House English School is one of the oldest and most respected British schools in Qatar. Celebrating over 30 years of educational excellence, we offer a high-quality British education to students aged 3 to 18.

Our Sixth Form caters to students from Year 12 to Year 13, providing a supportive and academically rigorous environment where young adults are challenged to reach their full potential. At this pivotal stage of education, students are not only prepared for examination success, but also guided towards meaningful futures, whether that be top university placements, competitive career pathways, or specialist fields of study.

With over 30 years of heritage in delivering world-class British education, Park House English School has built a reputation for excellence. Our Sixth Form stands as a testament to this legacy, offering a dynamic, student-centred experience that combines high academic standards with a commitment to personal growth and global citizenship.

A key focus of our Sixth Form is preparing students for life beyond school. The majority of our graduates go on to secure places at leading universities in the UK, the US, Canada, Europe, and across the globe, including members of the Russell Group, Ivy League, and other world-renowned institutions.

Your Future Starts Here: Future Pathways at Park House English School

Park House English School delivers the National Curriculum for England through a broad, balanced, and academically rigorous programme that prepares students for success at every stage of their education.

In Sixth Form, students in Years 12 and 13 select from a wide range of A Level subjects, allowing them to specialise in the areas that match their strengths, interests, and future pathway ambitions.

With expert teaching and personalised guidance, students are fully supported as they build the knowledge, skills, and confidence needed for entry into leading universities and competitive career pathways.

Park House is accredited by several prestigious bodies, including the British Schools Middle East (BSME), British Schools Overseas (BSO), Edexcel and the University of Cambridge.

A Balanced Curriculum

At Park House English School we are committed to developing the whole student by combining strong academic foundations with opportunities that nurture intellectual curiosity, personal character, wellbeing, and a lifelong love of learning. This balanced approach ensures students are fully prepared for higher education and their future roles in an evolving global society.

Academic Excellence

Students choose from a wide range of A Level subjects, specialising in areas linked to their interests and career ambitions. Expert teachers encourage deep thinking, intellectual curiosity, and real-world understanding.

Independent Learning

Sixth Form students develop independence through research, presentations, and discussion-based lessons, building the self-discipline and study skills needed for higher education.

Personal Development and Wellbeing

A strong pastoral system, dedicated tutors, and enrichment opportunities support emotional wellbeing, resilience, and a healthy balance between study and personal life.

University and Career Preparation

A dedicated Careers and Education Adviser works closely with students to guide them through university applications and future academic pathways. Alongside personalised support for personal statements and interviews, this ensures every student is fully prepared for their next steps.

Global Awareness and Transferable Skills

Through leadership roles, extracurricular activities, and wider-world experiences, students strengthen teamwork, communication, and critical thinking skills essential for a global future.

At Park House, every student is recognised as an individual with unique strengths and ambitions. The A Level programme nurtures confidence, capability, and the qualifications needed to succeed in the next stage of life.

Excellence in Education, Preparation for Life

At Park House English School Sixth Form, students benefit from a well-established programme shaped by more than three decades of educational experience.

This strong foundation has created a culture of high expectations, where learners are encouraged to aim high and make the most of their abilities within a supportive and purposeful setting.

As a British-owned and managed school, our Sixth Form offers AS and A Level qualifications within the English system. Students can select from a comprehensive selection of subjects, allowing them to design a pathway that reflects their talents and intended university courses.

Each subject is delivered with academic rigour and clarity, ensuring students gain secure knowledge and strong examination performance.

Our results consistently enable students to progress to respected universities across the United Kingdom, North America, and other international destinations. These outcomes reflect the quality of teaching, the structured guidance provided, and the dedication shown by our students.

Sixth Form life also encourages maturity, responsibility, and initiative. Learners take on positions of responsibility, contribute to the school community, and broaden their perspectives through a variety of experiences beyond their timetabled lessons.

Park House English School Sixth Form provides a supportive and ambitious environment, equipping students with the qualifications, mindset, and readiness to move forward with confidence.

Why choose Park House English School?

Experienced Specialist Staff

Park House English School's Sixth Form is led by experienced subject specialists who bring high academic standards and best practice from the UK into every lesson. Teachers build positive, respectful relationships with students, supporting them as young adults and recognising each individual's strengths, goals, and potential.

Personalised Academic Pathways

Learning in the Sixth Form is tailored to each student's ambitions. With small class sizes and close guidance, students receive individual support in choosing the right subject combinations, setting academic targets, and planning their next steps — whether university, apprenticeships, or future careers.

Active and Independent Learning

Sixth Form study goes beyond the classroom. Students take part in practical investigations, research projects, presentations, and collaborative work that develop independence, critical thinking, and real-world skills essential for higher education and employment.

Research-Informed Teaching

Our approach combines structured, high-quality teaching with opportunities for independent study and intellectual exploration. Students are encouraged to think deeply, question ideas, and take ownership of their learning in a supportive and academically focused environment.

Inspiring Courses and Achievement

Subjects are introduced through engaging themes and real-world links that spark curiosity and deepen understanding. Students are regularly encouraged to reflect on their progress and celebrate their achievements, building confidence and motivation.

Educational Visits and Enrichment

A range of educational trips, guest speakers, and enrichment opportunities extend learning beyond the classroom. These experiences provide valuable insight into universities, workplaces, and the wider world, helping students make informed decisions about their futures.

Outstanding A Level Success, Year After Year

At Park House English School, success at A Level is not a one-off achievement—it's a proud tradition. Year after year, our Sixth Form students deliver exceptional academic results, consistently performing above global averages and achieving top grades across a wide range of subjects.

This sustained success reflects our commitment to academic excellence, personalised learning pathways, and expert teaching. Our experienced staff guide students with care and ambition, preparing them not only for their exams, but for life beyond school.

Park House students regularly receive offers from top universities in the UK and around the world, including the Russell Group, Ivy League, and other prestigious institutions. Whether pursuing careers in medicine, law, engineering, business, or the creative arts, our graduates leave Sixth Form with the qualifications, confidence, and character to thrive.

We are proud of every student who walks through our doors and even prouder of the results they achieve. Their hard work, resilience, and curiosity are at the heart of our community—and their success is a reflection of the world-class education we provide.

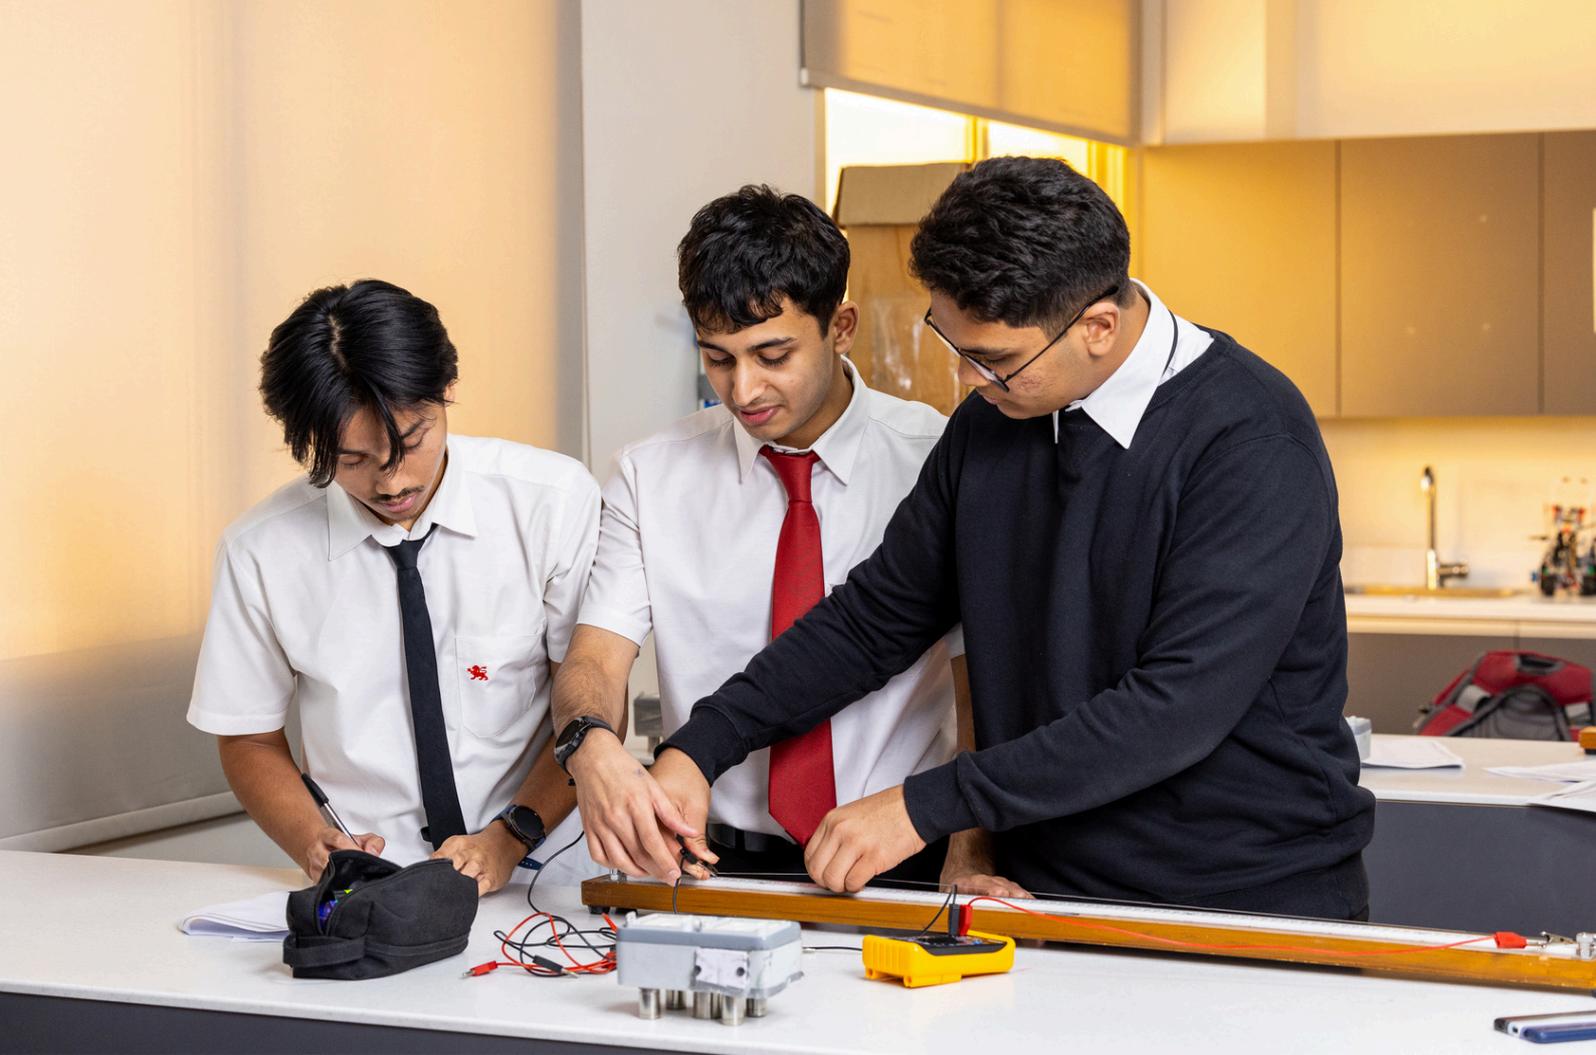

At Park House, we don't just prepare students for exams—we prepare them for the future.
